

SHEQ

Our company, Advanced Engineering is complying with the OHS Act at our workshop premises (off Site) where we manufacture steel structures.

On Client (Mine) site we comply with the guidelines of the MHSA.

The following policies are in place and available from Advanced Engineering.

- Fall Protection Plan
- SHE Plan
- Environmental Management Plan Policy
- Maintenance Plan
- Safety Management Plan
- SWP's on working operations and COP's on our Steel Workshop
- Risk Assessments and method statements - HIRA and DSTI's conducted on a daily basis.
- Emergency procedures
- Management pledge to Safety
- Safety, Health and Environmental policy
- Alcohol and Drug policy for all employees
- Housekeeping policy
- Advanced Engineering rules

Advanced Engineering has all pre-use inspection lists in place on hand tools, portable electrical equipment, hot work permits, vehicle pre-use inspection lists, excavation permits, lifting equipment inspections etc.

We are committed to safety and contractor specific induction is corporate into our safety department for training on the MHSA, Working at heights, roles and responsibilities of line management.

Safety Department is committed to compile site inspections throughout the project to ensure all workers are working in a safe environment.

Safety Statistics are available for incident and accidents. All incidents and accidents reports are on record for the last 2 years. Previous emergency drills on Impala site is also available and on record.

No LTI or fatal for the past 2 years for Advanced Engineering.

QUALITY CONTROL:

1. Quality Management Plan
2. Quality Control Plan

Advanced Engineering - Panel Division:

ISO rating almost complete. Final audit due 5/6 December 2013

Advanced Engineering:

ISO rating process starting January 2014